GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Purpose:

1. The purpose of this procedure is to secure at the lowest possible level equitable solutions to the problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions of employment. The parties agree that this procedure will be kept as informal as may be appropriate.
2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the Administration.

B. Definition:

A grievance is defined as:

1. A claimed breach, misinterpretation, or improper application of the terms of this Agreement.
2. A claimed violation, misinterpretation, or misapplication of the Agency's rules, regulations, and policies affecting the terms and conditions of employment.

- C. If a grievance or dispute arises over a matter which is controlled by the New Jersey Department of Personnel, the employee shall proceed through the New Jersey Department of Personnel for a resolution of the matter. If the grievance or dispute arises over a matter which is not controlled by the New Jersey Department of Personnel, then the matter shall be resolved through the grievance procedure.

D. Steps of the Grievance Procedure:

The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this agreement:

- Step 1 a. The grievant shall institute action under the provisions hereof in writing, signed and delivered to his/her immediate supervisor or department head, where the department head is alleged to have committed the grievable act, within fifteen (15) working days of the occurrence complained of, or within fifteen (15) working days after he/she would reasonably be expected to know of its occurrence. Failure to act within the prescribed time shall be deemed to constitute an abandonment of the grievance. The employee, after he/she has filed the grievance, shall have the right to present his/her appeal or designate a representative authorized by the Union and who is an employee of the Board to present said appeal with him/her without loss of pay. The designated representative must be a member of the Union.

- b. The immediate supervisor or department head, where the department head is alleged to have committed the grievable act, shall render in writing a decision to the grievant within ten (10) working days after receipt of the grievance. A copy of the response to the grievance will be given to the Union President, if the Union was involved in the First Step of the grievance procedure.
- c. In the event a decision is not rendered within ten (10) working days after receipt of the grievance, the grievance procedure at Step Two shall be applied. In that event, the grievant or the grievant's authorized representative shall give a written statement setting forth what occurred or did not occur in resolving the grievance at Step One.
- d. In the event that the grievance does not pertain to the immediate supervisor or department head, this step may be omitted at the discretion of the grievant and his/her immediate supervisor or department head. The aggrieved will forward a copy of the grievance to his/her immediate supervisor or department head in all situations.

Step 2. a. In the event satisfactory settlement has not been reached, the grievant shall, in writing and signed, file his/her complaint with the Director of Welfare within ten (10) working days following the determination at Step One. The employee, after filing the grievance with the Director, may present his/her appeal or designate a Council representative authorized by the Union to present the appeal, and the Union president or his/her designee who must be a Union member and an employee of the Board, may participate at the request of the employee without loss of pay throughout Step Two of the grievance procedure.

- b. The Director of Welfare, or his designee, shall render his decision to the grievant within ten (10) working days after the receipt of the complaint. A copy of the response to the grievance will be given to the Union President, if the Union was involved in the First Step of the grievance procedure.

Step 3. Any unresolved grievance may be appealed to arbitration only by the Union. The Union must file the request for arbitration within fifteen (15) working days after the receipt of the decision of the Director or his designee. The Board will not compensate Union witnesses, grievant, Union representatives, and/or officials for loss of time from work in attendance at arbitration hearings, New Jersey Department of Personnel hearings, or hearings before the Public Employment Relations Commission.

- a. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as compelling the Union to submit a grievance to arbitration. The Union's decision to request the movement of a grievance prior to submission to arbitration shall be final as to the interests of the grievant and the Union.
- b. The parties shall select an arbitrator on a case by case basis from the panel of arbitrators maintained by the Public Employees' Relations Commission and in accordance with the rules of the Public Employee Relations Commission.
- c. The parties may meet at least ten (10) working days prior to the date of the arbitration hearing to frame the issues to be submitted to the arbitrator and to stipulate the facts of the matter in an effort to expedite the hearing.
- d. The arbitrator may prescribe an appropriate back pay remedy when he finds a violation of this Agreement, provided such remedy is permitted by law and is consistent with the terms of this Agreement, except that he may not make an award which exceeds the Board's authority.

The arbitrator shall have no authority to prescribe a monetary award as a penalty for a violation of this Agreement.

- e. The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify the provisions of this Agreement and shall confine his decision solely to the interpretation and application of this Agreement. He shall confine himself to the precise issue submitted for arbitration and shall have no authority to determine any other issues not so submitted to him, nor shall he submit observations or declaration of opinions which are not essential in reaching the determination.
- f. The costs of the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Board and the Union. Any other expenses incurred in connection with the arbitration shall be paid by the party incurring the same.
- g. The arbitrator shall hold a hearing at a time and place convenient to the parties as expeditiously as possible after his selection and shall issue his decision within thirty (30) days after the close of the hearing.
- h. Grievance resolutions or decisions at Step One through Three shall not constitute a precedent in any arbitration or other proceeding unless a specific agreement to that effect is made by the authorized representatives of both parties. This is not to be construed as limiting the right of either party to introduce relevant evidence, including such grievance resolutions, as to the prior conduct of the other party.
- i. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

E. Miscellaneous:

1. Should the grievant elect to present his/her own grievance without Union representation, he/she should so indicate on the grievance form in the procedural Step One.
2. The Union will notify the Board in writing of the names of its employees who are designated by the Union to represent employees under this grievance procedure. This list shall be limited to Union officials and Shop Stewards, and AFSCME Council 73 representatives. It is understood that the Union will notify the Board in writing of changes in this list within a reasonable period of time. In Steps One (1) through Two (2), the designated employees shall notify their immediate supervisor in order to represent the employee in Steps One (1) through Two (2) of the grievance procedure.
3. Date and time of the arbitration hearing is to be within discretion and availability of the arbitrator.
